

Photo by mrhayata (CC BY-SA 2.0)

FASD TRAINING PROGRAM

FREE TRAINING – EARN A CERTIFICATE ONLINE

This new training program, which is the result of a collaborative effort between Douglas College and the Victoria Foundation, is created by experts in the FASD field.

It is suitable for justice workers, social workers, key workers, outreach workers, Ministry of Children and Development and Delegated Aboriginal Agency staff, CLBC staff, teaching assistants, employment specialists, foster parents and family members of individuals living with FASD.

The FASD Training Program consists of seven fully online self-paced modules, which cover a wide range of topics, including or similar to:

- FASD Fundamentals
- Primary And Secondary Disabilities
- Strategies And Solutions
- Family Matters
- Building Supports For Individuals With FASD
- Living And Learning: FASD First Hand
- Working With Families And Individuals With FASD

Seats are limited so REGISTER soon!

VICTORIA FOUNDATION

DOUGLAS COLLEGE

To register for the program, email:
FASDProject@douglascollege.ca